Rampant Glade Fire on all Cylinders

Forest played some scintilating football as they brushed aside Elmwood Colts 6-0 at Barleylands on Sunday. As early as the 6th minute they found themselves ahead after a lovely through ball by Callum O'Shea was dispatched by Lee Mulreany with deadly accuracy.

A quick second followed after a lovely move down the right saw David Cooper cross for Steven Bourner to volley home.

Forest continued to play great football, with the midfield dominating the away team and being driven on by skipper Jack Smith. A brave finish by Rhys Hooper made it 3-0, the player receiving a lovely set of accidental stud marks for his trouble from the keeper.

A stunning fourth by the brilliant David Cooper after a long run, made it 4-0, a strike of the highest quality.

Half time approached and on the stroke of the watch, Lee Mulreany hit an early shot on the half volley which was too hot to handle for the Elmwood Keeper, 5-0.

After half time Forest continued to dominate with the Forest defence of Wild, Harrison and Croton commanding things. Slick passing from Callum O'Shea created a lovely sixth for Steven Bourner to fire home.

After that saw the introduction of James Woods for his league debut and he didnt fail to deliver. His range of quality passing nearly led to 3 more goals for the team, one feels he will be a welcome addition to the squad.

Elmwood continued to fight however and Forest keeper Marcus Parsons kept his concentration throughout with an excellent performance.
